

BLACK HISTORY MONTH INVITING YOUNG ARTISTS DEADLINE 29 JAN 2024

Attention all young and emerging artists! We would like to invite you to submit your artwork for consideration to be displayed at The Military Museums for Black History Month. This is a great opportunity for you to showcase your talent and creativity, so don't miss out!

We are looking for pieces that celebrate and honor the rich history and achievements of Canadian Black military history. Your artwork can be in any form - paintings, sculptures, drawings, or digital art. Use your imagination and let your creativity shine!

All artwork that meets criteria* will be displayed in the atrium of the museum during Black History Month. This is a chance for your work to be seen by many people and make a real impact.

To submit your artwork, please contact communications@themilitarymuseums.ca and include a digital image or photograph of your piece. Be sure to include your name, contact information, and a brief description of your artwork.

The deadline for submissions is approaching fast, so don't wait too long! Take this opportunity to share your talent and contribute to the celebration of Black History Month. We are excited to see your amazing artwork and to showcase it to the world. Good luck!

*Artwork of an offensive nature will not be accepted. The Military Museums reserves the right to refuse submissions that do not align with Canadian Armed Forces policies against hateful conduct and ethical principles.
